Q20 - What specific suggestions do you have for improving the course or the way it is taught?
Response Rate:	66.67% (12 of 18)
1	none
2	Try to keep the papers spaced out so that the papers do not overlap with one another if possible.
3	Stop making everything so overly-complicated. Projects are poorly titled (e.g. literature analysis makes it seem like students are to analyze a literary work, like a book), way too much emphasis on rhetoric, although it is not useful in any way pertaining to everyday life. No feedback is given explaining final grades. The lab days on Fridays are a waste of time.
4	N/A
5	Make sure that all sections are having the same workload. I know it is up to the instructor to assign coursework, but having my roommate write only one paper all semester and me having to do 5 different projects seems unfair
6	I would like for the conferences to clearly cover any major problems with projects. So we know what to change to improve our writing.
7	I wish that it was more just writing papers so that I can just write them and get this class over with.
8	I think that dropping the grade an entire letter grade from missing one absence over the limit is a bit extreme but I'm glad there is a make-up assignment to help make up for it.
9	Have a certain rubric between professors because many classes have different assignments and this class has seemed to have a heavier work load than others.
10	Encouraging more group work so students get to know each other. I think this would make peer editing and project 4 go smoother if everyone knew each other and their work a little better.
11	Don't have the projects overlap so much it is overwhelming.
12	At times, it was confusing to know when things were due and what things were due at certain times. Having a timeline that is not the syllabus presented to the class each week would be helpful.

Q35 - What is something that the professor does well (that is, something you hope that the professor will continue to do in the class in the future)?

Faculty:	Baniya, Sweta
Response Rate:	88.89% (16 of 18)
1	The weekly conferences are very helpful and she offers a lot of suggestions that benefit the student.
2	The use of different technological media to have oneself analyze and portray their resources (primary and secondary).
3	The professor takes the time to make in depth comments that greatly help when revising an essay.
4	The professor explains very well in the beginning what the four projects are. She is also very approachable and personable. If you are struggling in the class or are falling behind due to other classes, family reasons, etc. she will work with you to help you reach your potential in the class.
5	Sweta is very approachable and makes it easy to ask questions.
6	She would always analyze my papers and help me improve them to the best of my ability and if I needed extra help she was always available by email and in her office hours.
7	She makes sure that we choose a topic for our Literature Review and Research Poster that we actually enjoy writing about and that we are interested in, instead of assigning us all the same topic or making us all do a certain thing.
8	She listens very well
9	She is very friendly and checks up with everyone individually which helps if you don't like asking questions in front of everyone.
10	She gives good feed back on papers
11	She does a great job including all students in the class. She makes sure everyone receives personal attention with their writing and such. She does a great job overall.
12	She comes to class prepared and grades in a reasonable amount of time which benefits the students.
13	I like that she is always willing to help and brainstorm with you. She is very understanding of personal circumstances and works with you to get through them. Sweta is a fair grader, and she always gives beneficial feedback.
14	I like how Sweta is always available to help her students, if it is with email or office hours. She really pushes her students to become better writers and see the world in a different way. I really like her teaching style and how the class is held.
15	I believe my professor is always well prepared for class and to help us. She will return our drafts with comments all throughout our paper in order for us to improve our writing.
16	Conferences - allow students to get a good grade by writing things from the professor's perspective. It's good that there are flexible deadlines.
